Item (13) Administrator's Report

County Administrator Joe Kernell reported a new traffic configuration onto the campus would go into effect on Thursday.

He stated the clean-up from Hurricane Helene was 85% complete with 1 million cubic yards of debris having been collected. He stated the goal was to be finished with the clean-up of County roads by the end of March. If anyone still had debris on their county road, they were to email that location to debris@greenvillecounty.org. Mr. Kernell stated FEMA would reimburse 100% of the cost the County incurred for the clean-up.

Councilor McGahhey encouraged citizens to copy their Council representative on their emails regarding debris clean-up to ensure a timely response.

Item (14) Requests and Motions by Council Members

a. Opposition to Annexation by the City of Travelers Rest to Build a Hotel on Paris Mountain

Councilor Shaw introduced a resolution whereby certain Greenville County Council members opposed the annexation by the City of Travelers Rest to build a hotel on Paris Mountain.

Chairman Blount referred the resolution to the Communications and Governmental Affairs Committee.

b. Text Amendment to Amend Section 8:5 ESD-PM Environmentally Sensitive District – Paris Mountain of the Greenville County Zoning Ordinance

Councilor Shaw introduced an ordinance to initiate a text amendment to Section 8:5 ESD-PM (Environmentally Sensitive District – Paris Mountain), of the Greenville County Zoning Ordinance.

Chairman Blount referred the ordinance to the Planning and Development Committee.

Councilor Shaw stated there had been overwhelming opposition to the matter based on the emails he had received. He stated he received one criticism of the resolution, in that it was fueling division. His response was, the resolution was not fueling divisions, it was the reaction to what was being perceived as a hostile take-over of long-standing political boundaries.

Councilor McGahhey stated on Wednesday, February 26 at 6:00 p.m. in the Council Chambers, he would be holding a hearing for people to speak regarding the proposed ordinance amending the Animal Control ordinance.

Chairman Blount stated with the adoption of the Council Rules, he was bringing back the opportunity for Council members to make comments on activities and district updates during the Requests and Motions portion of the agenda.

Chairman Pro Tem Seman stated she and Mr. McGahhey attended the ground breaking for the new Meals on Wheels facility off Grove Road. She thanked all the MOW volunteers for their commitment to this organization and to any other volunteers who were giving of their time to the Greenville community.

Item (15) Adjournment

Action: There being no further business, Vice Chairman Bradley moved to adjourn.

The motion carried and the meeting was adjourned at 6:44 p.m.

Respectfully submitted:

Regina McCaskill
Clerk to Council
