Mrs. Ollie Farnsworth,
Register of Mesne Conveyance,
Greenville, South Carolina

Dear Mrs. Farnsworth:

Mr. R. R. Hill of Laurens County, owns the tract of land containing about forty-five and one-half acres in the upper part of Laurens County and is making an application for a Land Bank loan. When this land was surveyed it was found that about two acres of this tract was in Greenville County. The deed transferring title to Mr. Hill was from J. C. Fipps, dated January 26, 1935 and was recorded in Laurens County in Book 66 at page 507. The consideration for this deed was ($1700.00) and the records of this office show that the State Revenue Stamps are $4.00 and the Federal Stamps of $2.00 were attached to the deed. This original deed has been lost and Mr. Hill has had a copy made. He now wishes to have this copy recorded in Greenville County, but naturally does not want to pay for the stamps a second time, and for this reason, I am informing you that the stamps were attached to the original deed.

Very truly yours,

V. R. Fleming
