KNOW ALL MEN BY THESE PRESENTS, that I David Furman Campbell, Sr., of Greenville County, South Carolina, do make, constitute and appoint my son, David Furman Campbell, Jr., of Greenville County, South Carolina, to be my lawful attorney-in-fact, for me and to do any and all acts which I could do myself if personally present.

I intend to give my attorney-in-fact the fullest powers possible and do not intend, by the following enumeration of his powers, to limit or reduce such powers in any way or fashion.

Among the powers granted to my attorney-in-fact are:

(1) the power to demand and sue for and recover and receive all debts, rents, interest, money, goods, and chattels due to me or that may become due to me or which belong to me or to which I may be entitled to possession. In connection with these powers my attorney-in-fact is authorized to execute and deliver receipts, releases and discharges. My attorney-in-fact is also empowered to make, endorse, accept, or deliver in my name or his name, commercial paper, agreements, and other instruments that he deems necessary to carry out the powers granted to him by these presents.

(2) the power to make deposits to or withdrawals from, any and all of my accounts, certificates of deposits, or other money instruments at any bank, savings and loan, and/or other financial institution. In connection with these powers, my attorney-in-fact is authorized to open or close accounts at any bank, savings and loan, and/or other financial institution.

(3) the power to purchase, sell or transfer stocks and bonds of any kind in my name or that of my attorney-in-fact and to execute and deliver any instruments required in connection with the purchase, sale or transfer.

(4) the power to take possession of any real estate that belongs to me or to which I may be entitled to possession and to receive any rent or profits that may be due from the real
