

Greenville, S.C. Sept. 9, 1914.

Whereas, Robt. E. Norris desires the use of a small plot of land lying to the east of his property on Buncombe Road on which his store is located near Union Bleachery, which small plot referred to is the property of Union Bleachery, the object of this is to set forth the fact that Union Bleaching & Finishing Co. is willing that he should have the use of this land for the purpose of building a small shed on the east side of his store, and also for building a stable back of the store, the exact boundaries to be agreed on.

The understanding being that said Robt. E. Norris is occupying this land belonging to Union Bleaching & Finishing Co. only during their will and pleasure and that any building or buildings he may erect on the same shall be removed by him whenever a demand to that effect shall be made by Union Bleaching & Finishing Co.

Union Bleaching & Finishing Co.

By Jno. W. Arrington,

President.

I understand the conditions above stated and agree to the same.

R. E. Norris, (L.S.)
