

State of South Carolina,
County of Greenville.

In consideration of one ($1.00) Dollar this day paid by J.H. Stacy and E.B. Dunigan and, in further consideration of the benefits that may accrue to us under the terms of a contract, including an option entered into by the undersigned with the said persons on May 14, 1919, we do hereby grant, an extension of the option and agreement contained in paragraph twenty (20) of said contract, to-wit: that the said J.H. Stacy and the said E.B. Dunigan, their heirs and assigns, shall have the right to purchase the exclusive right to manufacture or to cause to be manufactured all pumps and fittings referred to in said contract, together with all extensions or additions thereto upon the payment of twenty-five thousand ($25,000.00) Dollars within ninety (90) days from date hereof.

It is further agreed that paragraph twenty (20) of said contract shall be modified in the following respect if said option is exercised, to-wit; that said Stacy and Dunigan shall pay at least five thousand ($5,000.00) dollars annually as royalty to the Harris-Brockman Manufacturing Company for the period of time stipulated in said contract, viz, - the life of said patents. It is further agreed that if the above stipulated option is exercised, then, the said Stacy and Dunigan, their heirs and assigns, shall purchase from the undersigned such material and stock in process as undersigned may have on hand for the manufacture of pumps at the market value thereof and in the event of inability to agree as to the market value, then by an appraisal to be made by three disinterested persons, one of them to be chosen by the undersigned, one of them by the purchasers, and these two to select the third.

To this agreement, executed in quadruplicate, this the 14, day of May A.D. 1920, the undersigned, Harris-Brockman Manufacturing Company, hereby binds itself, its successors and assigns.
