Gentlemen.

I consent that you may lease to Jones Furniture Company during the remainder of your term the premises heretofore rented by you on North Main Street, Greenville City, S.C., and that Jones Furniture Company may make such alterations in show-windows, interior walls and ceilings as may suit their business requirements - provided you have front shelving and counters restored December the 31st, 1923 exactly as they stand at present, if I so demand.

All changes above mentioned shall be made at no expense whatever to me.

This letter is not to be considered as extending the period of my lease to you beyond December the 31st, 1923.

Mamie P. Browning.

Recorded May 13th, 1922.
