

Edith Taylor Rutledge	}	Petition for total divorce in Fulton Superior Court-
-Vs-		July Term, 1923.
J.R. Rutledge.		Verdict for Plaintiff-Defendants disabilities removed.

In the above named and stated case, two concurrent juries of this Court, at different terms thereof, having found a verdict for the plaintiff, granting a total divorce; it is considered, ordered and adjudged by the Court that the marriage heretofore entered into between the aforesaid parties, be, and the same is hereby annulled and dissolved, and the said Edith Taylor Rutledge has the right to marry again; and whereas, the jury trying said case having also by their verdict removed the disabilities of the said defendant, it is likewise ordered that he be allowed to remarry, both just as if no marriage had ever existed between them.

It is further ordered that the plaintiff, for the use of the officers of Court, do recover of the defendant, the sum of Sixteen Dollars and ninety cents, costs of this case.

This decree signed and entered on this the 19th, day of July, 1923.

Hutcherson and Morris,
425 Palmer Building,
Atlanta Georgia.
Attorneys for Petitioner.

John D. Humphries
Judge Fulton Superior Court - Atlanta.

State of Georgia,
County of Fulton.

I, Arnold Broyles, Clerk of the Superior Court, of Fulton County, Georgia, do hereby certify that the within and foregoing is a true and correct copy of the Decree of Court, in the case of Edith-Taylor Rutledge Vs J.R. Rutledge, No.

Fulton Superior Court, being of file and record in this office.

Witness my hand and seal of Court this July 19, 1923.

Arnold Broyles
Clerk Superior Court, Fulton County, Ga.

Recorded third day of August, 1923.

END OF DOC.