END OF DAY

State of South Carolina,
Greenville County.

Know all men by these presents, That I, Thomas Fleming Parker, Jr., of the County and State aforesaid, do hereby make, constitute and appoint my father, Thomas F. Parker, of the County of Greenville, State aforesaid, my true, sufficient and lawful attorney, for me and in my name to transact all of my business, with full power to sell and transfer any property, real or personal, of whatsoever kind I may possess, and to execute such deeds, conveyances or instruments of assignment as may be necessary for said purposes, and with full power to invest any and all funds coming into his hands for me in such way as he may deem advisable, and to re-invest and sell the substituted property as often as may be necessary.

And with full power to receive dividends, interest and other profits upon my stock and property belonging to me, and with power to sign checks, to execute proxies, and to vote my stock in any and all meetings of stockholders; with full power to do any and all acts that may be necessary in order to attend to any of my business; and my attorney shall not be held responsible for any mistakes of judgment in the exercise of any of the powers conferred upon him which may be injurious to my Estate.

I do and grant unto my said attorney power to do all acts and things necessary and requisite to the carrying out of the purposes of this instrument as fully as I could do if personally present, ratifying and confirming all that my said attorney shall do by virtue of the powers herein conferred.

In witness whereof, I, the said Thomas Fleming Parker, Jr., have hereunto set my hand and seal this 4th, day of December, in the year of our Lord, one thousand nine hundred and twenty.
