County of Greenville } ss

Personally appeared before me, Myall Aiken Jr. a notary public in and for the state of South Carolina, J. P. Blasingame, who being first duly sworn, says that he is a resident of the County and State aforesaid that he is a son of Mrs Mary Ann Blasingame, who departed her life on the 15th day of September 1892, that she left no will, but left the following children as her only heirs at law, one daughter, Mrs Marnie A. Laureton and three sons as follows: your deponent, W. P. Blasingame, and B. P. Blasingame. That at the time of her death she was seized and possessed of a certain lot of land on the west side of Lead Street, and measuring a distance of four hundred feet from Pendleton Street through to Arlington Avenue that thereafter Mrs. Marnie B. Laureton, W. P. Blasingame and B. P. Blasingame conveyed their interest to your deponent who conveyed it to Mrs. Ella W. Hard on the second day of March 1898.
