Know all Men By These Presents, That we, J. A. Silver and his wife Etta Silver, do hereby release and forever discharge H. V. Ponder, his heirs, executors and administrators, of and from all manner of actions and causes of action, suits and claims, in law or in equity, which we have had, may have or ever shall have by reason of the accident which caused the death of our child March 16th, 1931, in an automobile accident in said County and State near Duncan Mill, near the City of Greenville -herby binding our heirs, executors and administrators to the end that the terms of this release shall be observed according to its true intent and meaning.

As a consideration for this release the said H. V. Ponder has paid the sum of $265.00 Dollars, expense incident to the burial of our said child Elvin Silver, the receipt whereof is hereby acknowledged.

Witness our hands and seals this March 17th, 1931.
