

State of South Carolina,

County of Greenville.

Know all men by these presents, that we Jefferson D. Poole and Jesse P. Poole, both of the town of Travelers Rest, in the County of Greenville, and the State aforesaid, did on the first day of August, A.D. 1912 enter into a co-partnership, for the purpose of buying and selling general merchandise at Travelers Rest, S.C.

Now be it known that we are equal partners, and in the event of the death of either, Jefferson D. Poole or Jesse P. Poole, the interest of the deceased, shall accrue to the surviving partner, and our beloved sister, Mattie E. Poole, and the event of the death of the above named partners, then our sister Mattie E. Poole, is to have and enjoy the benefit of the whole of which we may die possessed, to have and to hold the same as her own, and to dispose of the same as she may deem wise.

Now be it further known, that should the said Jefferson D. Poole and Jesse P. Poole, or either of them live longer than the said Mattie E. Poole, then the survivor shall have the rights to all the property, of which we are now, or may hereafter be possessed of and dispose of the same in any manner that he should deem wise.

Be it further known that this agreement shall apply to both Real and Personal property.

In witness whereof we have hereunto set our hands and seal, this October the twenty-seventh in the year of our Lord one thousand, nine hundred and thirteen, and in the one hundred and thirty eighth year of the Independence of the United States of America.

Signed, sealed and acknowledged and at their request, in the presence of, and the presence of each other.
