County of Greenville

Whereas, on or about the <sup>1st</sup> day of November 1923, H. J. Shackleton and Annie J. Goodlette did by instrument recorded in Volume 100 page 13 bind the R. M. C. Office - said County and State, grant certain rights and privileges to Southern Power Company, over and above the lands in said instrument described,

And whereas since that time the said Annie J. Goodlette has departed this life, leaving her estate vested in Annie R. Shackleton as Trustee,

And whereas it is desired by said Southern Power Company to have the additional rights and privileges of erecting and maintaining towers in and on said land,

Now, therefore, in consideration of the foregoing premises and the sum of one dollar and no other valuable consideration, to the undersigned granted, in hand paid, by said Southern Power Company, the receipt whereof is hereby acknowledged, we do hereby grant to said Southern Power Company, its successors and assigns, the additional privilege of erecting and maintaining towers in and on said land, the rights and privileges heretofore granted as aforesaid, being in no other way nor to any other extent affected, but the same to remain of full force and effect as written, with this additional privilege added.

Witness our hands and seals this 1st day of October 1927.
