

Know All Men By these presents, that I, Laura Sterrett, a widow, of the City of Richmond, Virginia, have made, constituted, and appointed and by these presents do make, constitute and appoint, and in my place and stead put and deputy J. H. Sterrett, of the County of Greenville, South Carolina, my true and lawful attorney for me and in my name, and place and stead to buy and sell for my account, notes, bonds, mortgages and stocks, negotiate loans for me (and sign my name to notes and bonds evidenced by said loans, and pledge notes, bonds, stocks and mortgages, belonging to me, as collateral therefor), sign and deliver checks and drafts against moneys deposited to my credit in banks or trust companies, receive and receipt for any and all moneys due and payable to me or for my account, execute releases of any and all mortgages owned by me, and, generally, do and do all things necessary or proper in connection with the several things herein enumerated, giving and granting unto my said attorney by these presents full and whole power and authority in and about the premises to have, use and take all lawful ways and means, in my name for the purposes aforesaid. And, generally, all and every other acts, things or things in the law whatsoever lawful and necessary to be done in and about the premises, for me, and in my name do execute and perform, as fully, largely, amply, to all intents and purposes, as I might or could do if personally present. I hereby ratify, authorize and hold my said attorney shall lawfully do in and about the premises by virtue hereof.

In witness whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and seal, this 4th day of April 1927.

Laura Sterrett (L.S.)
