

or the structures thereon, or increase the number of railway tracks upon said right of way or construct any appliances or fixtures necessary or convenient for the operation of the same, and shall find it necessary or convenient to disturb said pipe line in so doing, then, and in such event, the commission shall, upon notice in writing so to do, at its own expense, change the location of said pipe line so that the same shall not interfere with the work of the Railway Company or its use of its said railway tracks and other property.

4. That it will indemnify and save the Railway Company harmless from and against any and all loss of or damage to property of the Railway Company, and against any and all claims, demands, suits, judgments or sums of money accruing to the commission or to any person, firm or corporation against the Railway Company for any injury or damage caused in any manner whatsoever resulting either to person or property arising or growing out of the location of said pipe line upon the right of way of the Railway Company.

5. The commission agreed to pay to the Railway Company the expenses of its representative in supervision of the laying of the said pipe line, promptly upon receipt of bill rendered by the Railway Company therefor.

In Witness Whereof, the Railway Company has caused this agreement to be signed in duplicate in its name and behalf by its President, its corporate seal to be hereunto affixed, and to be attested by its Secretary; and the commission, by resolution duly adopted in meeting assembled, has likewise caused this agreement to be signed in its name and behalf by its Chairman, its corporate seal to be hereunto affixed, and to be attested by its Secretary, the day and year first above written.
