

State of South Carolina

County of Greenville

Now Know all Men By These Presents that Buncombe Road Electric Light Company, a corporation, duly organized and existing under and by virtue of the laws of the State of South Carolina, in consideration of the sum of One Hundred Seventy-three and 7/100 ($173.07) Dollars to it paid at and before the signing and sealing of these presents by the Southern Public Utilities Company, a corporation organized and existing under and by virtue of the laws of the State of Maine, has granted, bargained, sold and delivered, and by these presents does grant, bargain, sell and deliver unto the said Southern Public Utilities Company its successors and assigns all those certain transmission lines consisting of poles, cross arms, wires and all apparatus and appliances affixed thereto or connected therewith now constructed and located along and near Union Street and Bleachery village, Buncombe Road and Franklin Road, in the State and County aforesaid as follows:

(1.) The Buncombe Road line commencing at a point on Union Street near point where C. & G. Railway track crosses Union Street about three (3) miles north of the Greenville County Court House where it tops a line owned by the Southern Power Company, and running thence along and parallel with the said Union Street to the Buncombe Road, thence along and parallel with the Buncombe Road in a northwesterly direction to a point approximately in front of the residence of J. Y. Throckton, commonly known as "Rock House," a total distance of approximately two (2) miles.

(2.) Franklin Road line commencing at a point at the intersection of Franklin Road and Buncombe Road about four (4) miles north of the Greenville County Court House, at which point it tops the Buncombe Road line, herein before described, and runs ning thence along and parallel with Franklin Road to a point approximately in front of the residence of J. P. Dill, a distance of approximately two-tenths (.2) mile, both of which lines are shown on map hereto attached and made a part hereof.

Next Page-

Together with any right, privilege and easement Buncombe Road Electric Light Company may have to operate and maintain said transmission lines along the locations now constructed upon the property of the Buncombe Road Electric Light Company.

To Have and To Hold the aforesaid transmission lines and property, and such rights, privileges and easements as said Buncombe Road Electric Light Company may have unto the said Southern Public Utilities Company, its successors and assigns forever.

And the said Buncombe Road Electric Light Company does hereby bind itself, its successors and assigns to warrant and forever defend all and singular the said transmission lines and property and in such rights, privileges and easements, as their interests appears, unto the said Southern Public Utilities Company, its successors and assigns against itself, its successors and assigns and every person whatsoever lawfully claiming and to claim the same, or any part thereof.

This conveyance supercedes and cancels contract heretofore entered into by and between the Buncombe Road Electric Light Company and Southern Public Utilities Company bearing date of March 31, 1914, and any other written or verbal contracts which may have been entered into at any time by and between the said Buncombe Road Electric Light Company and Southern Public Utilities Company.

In Witness whereof the Buncombe Road Electric Light Company, a corporation by and through its duly authorized officers J. Y. Throckton, President, and