

State of South Carolina } Tax deed
Greenville County.

Whereas the General assembly of the State of South Carolina, by lawful enactment, has embodied in section 528, code of laws of South Carolina, Vol. 3 1922 as provided for the seizure, advertisement and sale of land under execution for delinquent taxes, and otherwise made provision with reference to the sale of land for non-payment of taxes,

And whereas, there appears on the tax duplicate of Greenville County for the tax years commencing Jan. 1, 1921 and Jan. 1, 1922, assessments and tax executions against certain land assessed in the name of C. L. White, valued at two hundred thirty dollars, the taxes, penalties and cost amounting to Eighteen $\frac{35}{100}$ Dollars,

And whereas, the above named C. L. White having failed to pay said taxes, and whereas the Sheriff of Greenville County, having in all respects conformed to the lawful duty advertised said land for sale, and the said sale having been held on the 6th day of June, 1927 and the said land having been sold to Chas. A. New as the highest bidder, his bid being thirty-one $\frac{70}{100}$ Dollars.

Now, therefore, I Dan W. Cochran Jr., Delinquent Tax collector for Greenville County, for and in consideration of the sum of Thirty-one $\frac{70}{100}$ Dollars to my in hand & paid by the said Chas. A. New have granted, bargained, sold and released, and by these presents do grant, bargain, sell and release unto the said Chas. A. New the land so sold under tax executions and described as follows:—

70 Acres, more or less of land situated, lying and being in Glassy Mountain Township, adjoining lands of Henry S. Penell, Jack Howard the Estate of W. M. Plumley, and having the following metes and bounds:

Beginning at a spence pine 34 7/8 on a small branch, with said branch to Jack Howard's line to a stone 34 being a continued line made by J. J. Gosnell, thence with the Howard line to a line of the Estate of W. M. Plumley, deceased, thence with the

Over