County of Greenville

PERSONALLY APPEARED Homer Goldsmith, who being duly sworn, made oath that he bought 24 1/2 acres of land from W. A. Pollard in 1912 and gave to said Mr. Pollard a mortgage on said property in the sum of $1,750.00; That deponent kept said farm for four years, at which time he found he could not pay for the land; That the land was conveyed back to the said W. A. Pollard and the note and mortgage surrendered by said W. A. Pollard to deponent; That deponent burned both the note and mortgage upon his arrival at his home and that deponent owes no funds to the estate of the said W. A. Pollard.

Sworn to before me this 17th day of October, 1929.
