Assignment of Rent.

For valuable consideration I, Mrs. W. E. Brock, of Greenville, South Carolina, do hereby assign unto George Williams the rent to become due, as owner, by James Coleman, under his contract with me for the rental of that certain filling station and on Buncombe Road, Greenville County, South Carolina, which the said James Coleman now occupies, the said rent being the sum of Thirty ($30.00) Dollars per month and this assignment to cover a period of Five (5) months, beginning March 1st, 1931 and ending July 30th, 1931, and totaling for the said period the sum of One Hundred and Fifty ($150.00) Dollars, all of which is hereby assigned hereunder. And this assignment carries with it the authority from me to collect the said rent in the said amount as it becomes due me monthly by the said James Coleman until the said sum of One Hundred and Fifty ($150.00) Dollars is collected.

This assignment is given as collateral and to secure a note for the sum of One Hundred and Fifty ($50.00) Dollars, which I have, this day, made, executed and delivered to the said George Williams, and it is understood that the above rental payments are to be credited on said note and toward its payment each time and as such rental payments are made by the said James Coleman.

Witness my hand and seal at Greenville S.C. this Jan 26, 1931.

Signed, sealed and delivered in the presence of,
W. J. Newby

Mrs. W. E. Brock

I hereby agree to forward the rent as mentioned above direct to George E. Williams
