

in any future property that he may acquire. She does hereby assign, set over, transfer and convey to said John W. Billington, his heirs and assigns, any right, title or interest that she now has in the furniture located in the house in which they have been residing on Pendleton Street in the City of Greenville, South Carolina.

That said John W. Billington in consideration of the mutual agreement hereby releases the said Caroline Singleton her, which are known to him, but does not release her from any debts that she has contracted and which are now owing, for which he is responsible as her husband, and about which he has no knowledge. The said Caroline now owes, and which she agrees to pay, are as follows, none.

Witnesses:
C. W. Kilreath
E. W. Singleton

John W. Billington
Party of the first part.
Caroline Billington
Party of the second part.

State of South Carolina,
County of Greenville.

Personally appeared before me E. W. Singleton and made oath that he saw the within named John W. Billington, party of the first part, and Caroline Singleton Billington, party of the second part, sign, seal, and, as their act and deed, deliver the within written separation agreement for the uses and purposes herein mentioned, and that he with C. W. Kilreath witnesses the execution thereof.

Sworn to before me this 15 day of June, 1934.
Paul A. Long
Notary Public for S. C.

E. W. Singleton

Recorded June 21st, 1934 at 4:47 P. M.