Re: Probation of Will of Geo. C. Cole, Deceased:

This day came Henry K. Townes, attorney at law, and presented to the Court a writing bearing date the 15th day of June, 1935, purporting to be the Last Will and Testament of George C. Cole, deceased, late of said county, which writing purports to be wholly in the handwriting of the testator and signed by him, and moved the Court to admit the said writing to probate and record as and for the Last Will and Testament of the said Geo. C. Cole, deceased.

Thereupon, in support of said motion, one of the witnesses to said Will--Geo. W. Coffey--appeared in person and testified under oath that said writing was wholly in the handwriting and signed by the said George C. Cole as and for his Last Will and Testament in the presence of G. W. Brewster and the said Geo. W. Coffey, and they and each of them in his presence and in the presence of each other signed their names as subscribing witnesses to said Will; and it further appearing to the Court that the said G. W. Brewster one of the witnesses to said Will, cannot be present at this time, to the proving of said will.

Thereupon the County Court of said County of Mingo and State of West Virginia, sustained said motion to admit said Will to probate and record, and said writing is now here proved, established and declared to be the Last Will and Testament of the said George C. Cole, deceased, and is hereby admitted to probate and ordered to be recorded in the current Will Book in said County Clerk's office.

And it further appearing to the Court that no executor was appointed or named in said Will, and that the decedent did not own or possess any personal property in this county or state, no administration of the estate is hereby granted.

Office of the Clerk of the County Court.
Mingo County, West Virginia. November 2nd, 1935.

The foregoing Will of George C. Cole, deceased, was this day admitted to record in said office.
