

State of South Carolina
Greenville County.

Whereas by Acts of the General Assembly of the State of South Carolina, known as Sections 505, 520, 521 and 522 of the Civil Code of South Carolina, 1923 Vol. 3, and other Acts of the General Assembly, provision is made that within a specified time after the expiration of the time allowed by law for the payment of taxes in any year in the County of Greenville, the County Treasurer of Greenville County shall issue in the name of the State a warrant or execution against each defaulting tax-payer in his County directed to the Sheriff, requiring and commanding him to levy the same by distress and sale of so much of the tax-payer's estate, real or personal, or both, as may be sufficient to satisfy the taxes, State, school, county and special, of said defaulters, and further proceed in the manner prescribed in said statutes to enforce the collection of said tax and after due advertisement sell the same before the Court House door of Greenville County as therein provided;

And whereas in and by virtue of an Act of the General Assembly of the State of South Carolina approved March 10, 1928, the duty of the Sheriff of Greenville County with reference to the collection of delinquent taxes was conferred upon the Delinquent Tax Collector, who has been duly appointed and qualified by law and is now discharging all the duties required by said Act; and

Whereas there appears in the tax duplicate of Greenville County for the fiscal years 1926 through 1934 certain real estate consisting of the lot of land hereinafter described assessed in the name of Nick Saclarides, the taxes, penalties and assessments amounting to One Hundred five $\frac{7}{100}$ dollars; and

Whereas the above named Nick Saclarides having neglected to pay to the Treasurer of Greenville County the above taxes, penalties and assessments as required by law, executions were issued therefor as directed by the said Acts and lodged with Tax Collector for Greenville County; and

Whereas pursuant to the said execution, as directed by said Acts, a sale was had on the 3rd day of June, 1935, by the said Tax Collector, after the levy under said execution and due notice, and Elsie M. Kinney became the purchaser, and having paid to the said Tax Collector the said assessments;
