

(10) To purchase or otherwise acquire, hold, own, pledge, re-issue and sell its capital stock, as and when permitted by law.

(11) To have one or more offices to carry on all or any of its operations and business, without restriction or limit as to amount, to purchase or otherwise acquire, hold, own, use, rent, trade, in, lease, mortgage, invest in, sell, convey, transfer, or otherwise dispose of real and personal property of every class and description in any of the United States, districts, territories, or colonies of the United States and in any and all foreign countries, subject to the laws of such state, district, territory, colony or country.

(12) In general, to carry on any other business in connection with the foregoing and to have and exercise all the powers now or hereafter conferred by the laws of the State of South Carolina upon corporations organized for the purposes and objects hereinabove set forth, and to do and perform any other acts necessary and incidental to the proper and successful and profitable operation of the business of the corporation, to the same extent as natural persons might or could do.

(13) The foregoing clauses shall be construed both as objects and powers, and it is hereby expressly provided that the foregoing enumeration of specific powers shall not be held to limit or restrict in any manner the powers of this corporation, but the corporation shall have all of the power and authority conferred on it by the laws of the State of South Carolina.

Fifth: That the amount of the capital stock is Five thousand ($5,000.00) Dollars, payable immediately.

Sixth: That the number of shares into which the capital stock is divided is fifty (50) of the par value of One hundred ($100.00) Dollars.

Seventh: That, after due notice, a meeting of the subscribers was held on the 9th day of January, 1930, at which a majority of all stock in value being present in person or by proxy, the following were elected directors: E. C. Warehain, H. D. Crim, William H. Grimes, J. J. Mack and C. L. Parsons, Jr.,

Eighth: That subsequently there was elected as President, E. C. Warehain as Vice-President, H. D. Crim; as Secretary, J. J. Mack as Treasurer, C. L. Parsons, Jr.

Ninth: That all requirements of Chapter L, Article I, of the Civil Code of South Carolina, 1922 and all amendments thereto, have been duly and fully complied with, 50 per cent. of the aggregate amount of the capital stock having been subscribed by bona fide subscribers, 20 per cent. of the capital stock subscribed having been paid to the Treasurer, and three days' public notice of the intention to file this Declaration with the Secretary of State having been given in Charleston Evening Post a newspaper published in the County of Charleston.

Now, therefore, I, W. P. Blackwell, Secretary of State, by virtue of the authority in me vested by the aforesaid Code and Acts amendatory thereto, do hereby certify that the said Company has been fully organized according to the laws of South Carolina, under the name and for the purposes indicated in their written declaration, and that they are fully authorized to commence business under their charter; and I do hereby direct that a copy of this certificate be filed and recorded in the office of the Register of Mesne Conveyance or Clerk of Court in each county where such Corporation shall have a business office.
