Harloe Dayton Cooper,
Plaintiff,

No. 35623-E

vs.

A N S W E R

Ruby Cooper,
Defendant,

The defendant above named answering the within bill of complaint respectfully shows to the Court.

1.
The defendant acknowledges due and legal services of the summons and bill of complaint on her at her address 1315 Marion Street, Columbia, South Carolina.

11.
The defendant admits the allegations contained in plaintiff's complaint. Wherefore, having fully answered, this defendant prays:

- (1) That the prayer of the plaintiff be granted.
- (2) For such and other further relief as the Court may deem just and proper.

Notary Public for

State of South Carolina,
County of Richland.

Personally appeared before me, Mrs. Ruby Cooper, who being duly sworn says that she is the wife of Harloe Dayton Cooper, that she knows that her husband, Harloe Dayton Cooper, has filed a proceeding for a divorce in the State of Florida; that some two years previous to the date of this affidavit for various and sundry reasons the relations between herself and her husband, the said Harloe Dayton Cooper, reached a point which rendered it impossible for the two of them to continue to live together as man and wife; and that the deponent did then and there leave her husband and his domicile and went to live with her parents, and since that time she has not cohabited with her husband and has continued to live separate and apart from him.

Sworn to before me this 20 day of Dec. 1935.
