We undersigned, having been appointed as three disinterested men to appraise the tract of land of which William B. Locke did seized and possessed and to which reference in his will is made, do hereby make the following report:

We have appraised said tract of land at $10,000.00. The wife of William B. Locke being deceased and having died prior to the son, J. W. Locke, leaves living at the death of said wife, and who are now living, John D. Locke, E. M. Locke, Lila L. Hughes and Jessie L. Locke. J. W. Locke departed this life leaving now surviving his children, Beverly Locke, Mary Locke, and J. W. Locke, Jr.

In order to make an equitable division of said land among the aforesaid parties we have taken the plat or survey by J. Earle Freeman, dated August, 1936, whereon said tract of land has been subdivided and we allot such portions of said land, as follows:

To John D. Locke, as shown on said plat, tract No. 3, and valued at $2000.00.
To E. M. Locke, as shown on said plat, tracts 5 and 6, and valued at $2000.00.

See Plat Book A. pages 27 & 28.
