

The State of South Carolina, }
COUNTY OF GREENVILLE.

Whereas, Minnie J. Saines heretofore departed this life leaving her husband, Olin A. Saines, Sr., and children, Margaret Saines, (now Child), C. C. Saines and Olin A. Saines, Jr., and later the said Olin A. Saines, Sr., also died; and the estates of both decedents have not been wound up; and desire to now renounce and release any equity in and to such estates to my brother, Olin A. Saines Jr., now, therefore.

KNOW ALL MEN BY THESE PRESENTS, That I, Charlton C. Saines

in the State aforesaid, in consideration of the sum of one dollar, as a equalization of the distribution of the estates of our said father and mother as <sup>dollars</sup> among the children to me in hand paid at and before the sealing of these presents by Olin A. Saines, Jr.

in the State aforesaid, the receipt whereof is hereby acknowledged, have granted, bargained, sold and <sup>quit claimed</sup> released and by these presents do grant, bargain sell and release, unto the said Olin A. Saines Jr.

Any and all right, title, interest, estate, claim, demand and equity, at law or in equity, in and to any and all the real and personal estates of the said Olin A. Saines, Sr. and Minnie J. Saines, situate principally and in the main in the town of Greer, or near there, Chick Spring Township, said County and State, but also covering and embracing any property or property rights elsewhere owned in whole or in part by the said estates.
