

before me, and upon being privately and separately examined by me, did declare that she and her said husband have entered into a written contract by which they have mutually agreed to release each other from the obligations of the marriage relation, and does further declare that she does freely, voluntarily and without any compulsion, dread or fear of any person or persons whomsoever, renounce, release and forever relinquish absolutely and forever, all her interest and estate, and also all her right and claim of dower, of, in or to all and singular the real estate which he, the said Fred V. Johnson, may hereafter acquire either by purchase, grant, devise or inheritance.

Given under my Hand and Seal this
14 day of March, 1942

Constance J. Johnson.

W. E. Bowen (L. S.)
Notary Public for South Carolina.

No Stamps.

Recorded October 15th, 1943 at 10:48 A. M. #10059 BY: E. G.

COPY OF VERDICT AND JUDGMENT
SECOND TOTAL DIVORCE VERDICT

We, the jury, find that sufficient proofs have been submitted to our consideration to authorize a total divorce; that is to say, a divorce a vinculo matrimonii upon legal principles between the parties in this case.

We affix the rights and disabilities of the parties as follows: the defendant shall be at liberty to marry again.

The 27 day of February, 1943.

F. M. Gillispie
Foreman

Decree of Court in Total Divorce

Fred V. Johnson vs.

Constance J. Johnson
State of Georgia, County Franklin

Two concurring verdicts having been rendered favoring a total divorce to the plaintiff in the within case, it is considered, ordered and adjudged that the said marriage be and the same is hereby annulled and a total divorce granted between the parties with the liberty of both parties to marry again.

This 27 day of February, 1943.

Clark Edwards, Jr. Judge
Superior Court of Georgia.

Georgia, Franklin County.

I, A. C. Carson, Attorney at Law for the plaintiff in the above named and stated case hereby certify as attorney at Law for the plaintiff, and further certify under my hand and seal that the above verdict and judgment in said case is a true and correct copy as the verdict and judgment rendered at the regular term of Franklin Superior Court on the 27 day of February, 1943.

This 27 day of February, 1943.

A. C. Carson
My commission expires April 1944.

Recorded October 15th, 1943 at 10:48 A. M. #10059