

TITLE TO REAL ESTATE

generally to draw up any kind of contracts and to appoint other attorneys with the same or minor mandates, and in conclusion to appear before the American Courts and Authorities, the assigner declaring as from now that she recognises any act of her said attorney as valid and unassailable and as if made by herself.

In witness whereof these presents were drawn up, for which Drs. 11,000 were collected for charges and fees, and which read out distinctly and aloud to the hearing of all, and confirmed, were signed by all of us except for the assigner who declared being illiterate.
