

(c) The preferred stock at any time outstanding may be redeemed by the corporation at par and dividends declared thereon, but unpaid to the date of such redemption, provided, however, that such stock shall be so redeemed, upon, but in no event before, the termination of any contract of mortgage insurance covering any indebtedness of the corporation without obligation upon the Commissioner to issue debentures as a result of such termination. Preferred stock so redeemed shall be retired and cancelled.

placements provided in Article 6th, Section (d) hereof or the use of such fund except as permitted in said section; (4) the failure of the corporation, continuing for a period of fifteen days, to perform any of the covenants, conditions or provisions required by it to be performed by this Charter, the By-Laws of the corporation, the Mortgage, or any contract to which the corporation and the Commissioner shall be parties, or fail to carry out in full the terms of any agreement whereby the loan covered by the insured mortgage is to be advanced or the project is to be constructed and operated.

(b) In the event the mortgagor is in default under the terms of this Charter or has failed to perform the covenants required by it to be performed under the terms of this Charter or by any Mortgage insured by the Commissioner, the Commissioner may require the corporation to furnish at the expense of the corporation a complete audit of its books or account duly certified by a certified public accountant.

(c) Upon any default by the corporation, the president or the secretary, or either of them, as may be required by law, shall, at the request in writing of the holders of record of a majority of shares of the preferred stock, addressed to him at the office of the corporation hereinabove designated and stating the purpose of the meeting, forthwith call a special meeting to take place within ten days after such call, of the preferred stockholders for the purpose of the removal of existing directors and the election of new directors. If such officers shall fail to issue a call for such meeting within three days after the receipt of such request, then the holders of a majority of the shares of the preferred stock may do so by giving notice as provided by law, or, if not so provided, then by giving ten days' notice of the time, place and object of the meeting by advertisement inserted in any newspaper published in the county or city in which the principal office of the corporation is situated. When such default shall have been cured, the president or the secretary, or either of them, as may be required by law, shall, at the written request of the holders of a majority of the outstanding shares of the capital stock of the corporation, call in the manner provided by law, a special meeting of the stockholders of the corporation at which the then existing directors may be removed and new directors elected in the usual manner provided in this Charter. Such officer shall give notice as provided by law, or, if not so provided, he shall give ten days' notice of the time, place and object of such meeting as above provided.

9th. The following provisions are hereby adopted for the conduct of the affairs of the corporation and in regulation of the powers of the corporation, the directors and stockholders:

(a) (1) Dwelling accommodations of the corporation shall be rented at a maximum average rental per room per month fixed by the Board of Directors of the corporation and approved by the holders of the preferred stock. A schedule of rentals for the reasonable rental value of each apartment based upon the average as so determined shall be filed with the holders of the preferred stock, prior to leasing or offering for lease of any of the dwelling accommodations of the project, and when approved by them, shall thereafter be maintained except as provided in Article 7th hereof. Store accommodations shall be rented at a rental to be fixed by the directors with the approval of the holders of the preferred stock. (2) The corporation shall have the
