

STATE OF SOUTH CAROLINA
 COUNTY OF GREENVILLE

WHEREAS, a certain tract of land in Bates Township, County and State aforesaid, was left to Henry Coleman and Susie Coleman Lagenback by the will of their father, H. B. Coleman (See Aft. 330, file 24 in the office of the Probate Court for Greenville County) as tenants in common, share and share alike, with the proviso that should either die without bodily heirs then his or her or their share or shares should go to his or her brothers and sisters.

The said H. B. Coleman left four children, all of whom are full brother and sisters. These were Henry Coleman, Susie Coleman Lagenback, Lillie M. Southerline and Annie Davidson. Since his death his daughter, Annie Davidson, has died leaving her two daughters, Grace Cox and Annie Free as her sole heirs at law. The said Henry Coleman has never married and is childless. Susie Coleman Lagenback has one child. Lillie M. Southerline has children.

NOW it is desired by Henry Coleman and Susie Coleman Lagenback to divide said tract of land in kind, and that being satisfactory to all of the persons who might take should either of them die without bodily heirs, this contract of division is entered into.

As her separate and individual property, freed from any claim or interest therein by her co-tenant, Henry Coleman, but subject to the conditions and limitations imposed by the will of the said H. B. Coleman, there is hereby set off unto Susie Coleman Lagenback:
