POWER OF ATTORNEY

KNOW ALL MEN BY THESE PRESENTS that I, Mrs. Jennie H. Ritchie, formerly of Greenville, South Carolina, but now of Wilkes County, State of North Carolina, have made, constituted and appointed, and by these presents, do make, constitute and appoint Joseph C. Jones my true and lawful attorney for me and in my stead, name and place for the purpose of transacting all and of my type of business for me, including, by way of explanation but not by way of limitation, the power to sell and convey my real estate or other property of any and every kind belonging to me, and to make any other contract relative to my real estate or any other property which I own, giving and granting unto the said Joseph C. Jones, my said attorney, full power and authority to do and perform all and every act and thing requisite and necessary to be done in and about the premises as fully to all intents and purposes as I, Mrs. Jennie H. Ritchie, might or could do if personally present, hereby ratifying and confirming all the said Joseph C. Jones, my said attorney, shall lawfully do or cause to be done by virtue hereof. I specifically grant unto the said Joseph C. Jones the power to make and execute in my name deeds of conveyances, bills of sale, or any other instrument pertaining to my real or personal property, said conveyances by him to have the same force and effect as if personally signed by me.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I, the said Mrs. Jennie H. Ritchie, have hereunto set my hand and seal this the 13th day of July, 1953.
