

approved in writing as to conformity and harmony of external design with existing structures in the subdivision, and as to location of the building with respect to topography and finished ground elevation, by a committee composed of Annie C. Jenkinson, Walter Pickell and Richard H. Carpenter. In the event of death or resignation of any member of said committee, the remaining member or members shall have full authority to approve or disapprove such design and location or to designate a representative of like authority. In the event said committee or its designated representative fails to approve or disapprove such design or location within thirty days after such plans and specifications have been submitted to it, or, in any event if no suit to enjoin the erection of such building or the making of such alterations has been commenced prior to the completion thereof, such approval will not be required and this covenant will be deemed to have been fully complied with. Neither the members of such committee nor its designated representative shall be entitled to any compensation for services performed pursuant to this covenant. The powers and duties of such committee and its designated representative shall cease on and after January 1, 1973. Thereafter the approval required in this covenant shall not be required unless prior to said date and effective thereon a written instrument shall be executed by the then owners of a majority of the lots in this subdivision and duly recorded appointing a representative or representatives who shall thereafter exercise the same powers previously exercised by such committee.

C. No noxious or offensive trade or activity shall be carried on upon any lot nor shall anything be done thereon which may be or become an annoyance or nuisance to the neighborhood.

D. No trailer, basement, tent, shack, garage, barn or other outbuilding erected in the tract shall at any time be used as a residence temporarily or permanently, nor shall any structure of a temporary character be used as a residence.
