

The State of South Carolina.

TO ALL WHOM THESE PRESENTS SHALL COME OR BE MADE KNOWN or whom the same may in anywise concern, I, ^{FANNIE C. SCOTT} ~~WALTER M. SCOTT~~, as Judge of the Court of Probate for Greenville County, in the said State, SEND GREETING:

WHEREAS M. L. Cox in his own right and as Administrator of the Estate of M. E. Cox, deceased on or about the 4th day of December in the year one thousand nine hundred and twenty-two did exhibit his Complaint in the Court of Probate, in the County of Greenville and State aforesaid, for the sale of the Real Estate of M. E. Cox, deceased in aid of personal assets to pay debts of the deceased as will appear from the record on file in office of Judge of Probate in Apt. 177, File 8

And the Cause being at issue before the Honorable the Court aforesaid, came to be heard on the day of December one thousand nine hundred and 22, when the said Court, after a full hearing thereof and mature deliberation in the premises, Did Order, Adjudge and Decree that the real estate hereinafter mentioned and described, should be sold at public auction by the Judge of the Court of Probate for Greenville County, on the terms and for the purposes mentioned in the said Decretal Order, as by reference thereto, on file in the said Court, will appear: And the said Judge of the Court of Probate, after having duly advertised the said lands or real estate for sale by public outcry, on the 5th day of February in the year of our Lord one thousand nine hundred and twenty-three did then, openly and publicly and according to the custom of auction, sell and dispose of the said real estate described below unto H. J. Lanford for Four Thousand Five Hundred seventy-five ($4,575.00) being at that price the highest bidder for same. The said H. J. Lanford assigning his bid to George T. Brown for value received.
