

construction materials), and plat plan showing the location of such building have been approved in writing as to conformity and harmony of external design with existing structures in the subdivision and as to location of the buildings with respect to topography and finished grade elevation by a committee composed of L. L. Richbourg and Furman C. Smith or by a representative designated by the members of said committee. The undersigned property owners reserve the right to change or increase the membership of said committee at any time. In the event of death or resignation of a member of said committee, the remaining member shall have full authority to approve or disapprove such design and location, or to designate a representative with such authority. In the event said committee, or its designated representatives, fails to approve or disapprove such design and location within thirty (30) days after said plans and specifications have been submitted to it, or in any event, if no suit to enjoin the erection of such buildings or the making of such alterations has been commenced prior to the completion thereof, such approval will not be required and this covenant will be deemed to have been fully complied with. Neither the members of such committee, nor its designated representative, shall be entitled to any compensation for services performed pursuant to this covenant. The powers and duties of such committee, or its designated representative, shall cease on and after April 1, 1980. Thereafter the approval described in this covenant shall not be required unless, prior to said date and effective thereon a written instrument shall be executed by the then record owners of a majority of the lots in this subdivision, and duly recorded, appointing a representative, or representatives, who shall thereafter exercise the same powers previously exercised by said committee.
