

the point of beginning.

Said property is the same property conveyed by George W. Taylor to John H. Houston, by Deed dated July 21, 1891, and recorded in the R. M. C. Office for Greenville County, South Carolina, in Deed Book "XX" at page 870.

Together with all improvements in or on the premises and together with all of the right, title and interest of the owners in and to any alleys, streets, ways, strips or gores, abutting or adjoining said property. It is understood that such land is being obtained by and for the Post Office Department.

The gross consideration for this conveyance, in accordance with the afore-said decree, is the proportionate value of the interests of the defendants in one-sixth (1/6th) of the purchase price pursuant to the contract of sale mentioned in said decree, that is, approximately One Thousand, Three Hundred Seventy-Five and No/100 ($1,375.00) Dollars, representing seventy-five (75%) per cent of such one-sixth (1/6th) of the purchase price.

~~TOGETHER with all and singular the Rights, Benefits, Advantages and Appurtenances to the said Premises belonging, or in anywise incident or appertaining; and all the estate, right, title, claim and interest whatsoever of the parties to the same at death and of each of them at and to the same, and all other persons rightfully claiming from any of them.~~

To HAVE AND TO HOLD, all and singular the premises before mentioned, unto the said United States of America, and its assigns, heirs and assigns forever.

