

completing the closure of said street as have many of the adjoining property owners done with and without agreement between themselves and the county of Greenville, this Agreement is made and entered into.

IT IS HEREBY AGREED by and between Homer Styles and the County of Greenville, by and through its Board of Commissioners that the small strip of land to the rear of the property of Homer Styles previously referred to as the old Paris Mountain Road, which strip is not now in use by the County and which is not now paved, guttered or provided with the necessary drainage for street purposes, be and is hereby closed to the traveling public and the County of Greenville does hereby expressly release and quit claim unto Homer Styles all of its right title and interest in and to said property, if any, by virtue of the abandoned road pursuant to its reservation in the deed to Lloyd E. Hunt as above set forth unto Homer Styles his heirs and assigns forever.

IT IS UNDERSTOOD AND AGREED, that Greenville County, pursuant to its reservation in the Lloyd E. Hunt deed, does hereby abandon and close that strip of Paris Mountain Road directly behind lot 2 of the Greenville County property on plat book JJ at page 25 now owned by Homer Styles and Homer Styles does hereby agree that the County of Greenville shall no longer have any liability whatsoever to maintain said strip of land nor any liability for failure to maintain said strip of land for the past 25 years.

The considerations for this instrument are the mutual benefits to be derived by the parties to this agreement.

IN WITNESS whereof, the parties have hereunto set their hands and seals this the 9 day of October, 1959.
