

such payments will be born by the said B. P. Edwards.

In case the said Mary Long Gambrell becomes tenant hereunder, and with no further rights as proposed purchaser, then all statutory and legal rights be preserved into the said B. P. Edwards for the collection of any rents in arrears at anytime.

This contract includes all agreements as between the parties hereto; and the said Mary Long Gambrell may not assign or sell the same without the written consent of B. P. Edwards. Any and all proceeds of insurance collected for damages or injury of the said property may be retained by the said B. P. Edwards as against the indebtedness then owing; but the death of either party hereto will not of itself cancel and end this agreement, but the estate of the one first becoming deceased may continue the performance hereof as the original party hereto.

Time is hereby made the essence of this contract.

This contract enures to the benefit of each party hereto, and is binding upon each of them, their respective heirs, executors, administrators or assigns.

The said Mary Long Gambrell hereby agrees to the terms hereof and contracts to purchase the property described on the terms herein stated, and upon her failing for any reason to carry out the contract as purchaser of the property, then to pay the monthly rental above stated from the date of her failure to pay as proposed purchaser.

Any changes in the terms or the conditions hereof to any extent to be reduced to writing and signed by the parties to be bound.

WITNESS the hands and seals of the parties hereto this the 19th day of February, A. D. Nineteen Hundred Sixty.
