for Greenville County, in Mortgage Book 655, at page 81.

collect the rentals from the premises hereinbefore described as they may accrue under the terms of said lease, and enforce the collection of the same, and also enforce all other provisions of said lease, so long as there is no ocfault on the part of the undersigned in the payment of any installment of interest and principal as provided in the mortgage hereinabove referred to, and so long as there is no breach in any of the conditions and covenants of said note and nortgage.

signed shall not collect any rentals further in advance than as provided in said lease, and collections made by it further in advance than as provided therein, shall constitute a breach of covenant, and the mortgagee may proceed to execute the provisions of said mortgage in the same manner as provided therein in case of default in the payment of the note described in said mortgage or a breach of the covenants contained therein.

should be necessary for Provident Life and Accident Insurance Company, for the purpose of protecting its interest, to assert its rights as assignee of said lease, and to enforce payment of the indebtedness existing under said note and mortgage, or any part thereof, from the leasehold interest hereby assigned, said Provident Life and Accident Insurance Company will account and pay over to the undersigned all amounts realized by it from rents collected under said lease in excess of the indebtedness of the undersigned to Provident Life and Accident Insurance Company, principal and interest, including such costs and expenses as the said Provident Life and Accident Insurance Company may be obligated to incur in thus enforcing its rights as assignee of said lease, and including any and all sums which

RAINEY, FANT, TRAXLER & HORTON ATTORNEYS AT LAW GREENVILLE, S. C.

(continued on next page)