WHEREAS, the said Eva Hayes Haile did leave a holographic will, wherein she attempted to bequeath and devise all of her estate, with a minor exception, to her niece, Mary M. Hayes, but under the laws of the State of South Carolina, a holographic will is not recognized and cannot be probated, and the said holographic will is of no legal effect; and

WHEREAS, the said paper writing or holographic will is in words and figures as follows:

"Rock Hill,
South Carolina

"I, the undersigned, Eva Hayes Haile (the widow of the late Dr. J. E. W. Haile), in my own hand do hereby write and make my last will and testament as follows:

"In love and affection my very dear nieces and nephews share alike. I want to leave my deepest appreciation to Harvey Jones and Wade Barber for their substantial help and encouragement many times. If Joe my brother out lives me I give to him - $350.00. I give to Wade Barber the table made from the old (near 200 yrs) family piano which is associated with my sister, his mother.

"In gratitude for all that that brother Bob and Sister Etta did for my mother and me and their loyal friendship to Dr. Haile - I give to Mary Hayes all of my property and personal effects and name her as Ex -

"Every part of this paper writing is in my own hand.

"Witness my hand this First day of July 1947.

Eva Hayes Haile"

AND WHEREAS, the bequest to "Joe my brother" and the bequest to Wade Barber have both lapsed; and 624.5-2-55 THRU 59
