

all of the said lots with plain numbers, which are together on the North side of East Lake Shore Drive, and all fronting on the water, while the numbers with B are located on the South side of East Lake Shore Drive. See Plat Book G at Page 25

On careful examination of the records it is revealed that all of the plain numbers have changed hands, and some sold for taxes, and all occupied and in the hands of the present owners by complete chain of title.

The purpose of this is simply to get into the record notice of an oversight in the original recorded plats.

An examination of the maps in the Block Map Department indicates that their records are and have been in line with this connection

The Register's office has been requested to make a note on the recorded plat for guidance in future checking of lots #224B, 225B, 226B and 227B
