DEFAULT CLAUSE. That if the rent above referred to, or any part thereof, shall be past due or unpaid on the date of payment by the terms hereof, or in the event that Tenant shall be in default or fail in the performance of any covenant or agreement on its part to be performed in this lease, and remain so for a period of thirty (30) days after written notice of said nonpayment or other default shall have been sent by registered mail to Tenant, then and in such case it shall and may be lawful for the said Landlord, at Landlord's option, by summary proceedings, or by any other appropriate legal action or proceedings, to terminate this lease, and to enter into said demised premises or any part thereof, and expel the said Tenant, or any person or persons occupying in, or upon the said premises, and so to repossess and enjoy the said premises as in Landlord's former estate, except that if any such default other than nonpayment of rent, taxes, or insurance, cannot be remedied by the Tenant with reasonable diligence within thirty (30) days, Tenant may have such additional time as may, under the circumstances, be reasonably necessary to remove said default. Should the said term at any time be ended under the terms and conditions hereof, or in any other way, the Tenant hereby covenants and agrees to surrender and deliver up the said premises and property peaceably to the said Landlord immediately upon the termination of said term. In addition to the rights to terminate, and all other remedies set forth in this paragraph, the Landlord shall also have all other rights and remedies which may be available under the laws of the State of South Carolina, subject to the conditions applicable to Landlord's right to terminate hereinbefore provided.

LIENS. By the provisions of this lease, Tenant is required to keep the demised premises in repair, and bear the cost of any alterations, additions or improvements made by it, or of building a new building on the demised premises. If any mechanics', materialmen's, or other liens are
