Contract:-

We, Marvin Lee Masters and Jesse Lee Masters, joint owners of Masters Used Cars, hereby agree that if one of the partners die, the other partner will take the wife of the deceased into the business as an equal but silent partner, having no voice, but sharing equally in the profits. The partner remaining blind would not have to give account of business transaction to wife of deceased. The business is to operate without will of either partner being concerned. Either partner can sell to other partner, or wife of deceased can sell to living partner, neither partner will be free to act in all business matters in case of other partners death.
