

By a certain separation agreement, I have agreed as follows:

"The wife hereby appoints her husband as her attorney in fact to renounce her dower rights on any future conveyance, whether by way of deed or mortgage. The wife shall further promptly execute on request by the husband, or by any person interested in his property, all submitted instruments releasing her dower. In the event the wife should fail to execute any such instrument, she submits to the jurisdiction of the Greenville County Court for the purpose of any action which may be brought to compel her to do so by decree of specific performance, and she waives the twenty-day period, agreeing that four days' notice of such action, by Rule to Show Cause, shall be sufficient."

I therefore acknowledge that I will have no right to claim dower in the above property.
