Eleventh. In case of violation by the Tenant of the covenants, agreements and conditions contained in this Lease, or any or either of them, and upon failure to discontinue such violation within ten days after notice in writing of such violation addressed by the Landlord to the Tenant, at the demised premises or such other place as may be hereinafter designated in writing by the Tenant, this Lease shall thenceforth at the option of the Landlord become null and void, and the Landlord may re-enter without notice or demand; and the rent in such case shall become due, be apportioned and paid on and up to the day of such entry, and the Tenant shall be liable for all loss or damage resulting from such violation as aforesaid. No waiver by the Landlord of any breach of condition by the Tenant shall constitute or be construed as a waiver of any other condition or breach of condition, nor shall lapse of time after breach of condition by the Tenant before the Landlord shall exercise its option under this paragraph operate to defeat the right of the Landlord to declare this Lease null and void and to re-enter upon the demised premises after breach or violation.

Twelfth. It is further agreed by and between the parties hereto that if at any time during the term of this Lease the Tenant herein shall die or make any assignment for the benefit of creditors or be decreed insolvent or bankrupt by any court, Federal or State, of competent jurisdiction, or make any involuntary assignment of this Lease, the Landlord may, at his option, terminate this Lease, exercise of such option to be evidenced by notice to that effect served upon the assignee or receiver, trustee or other person in charge of the liquidation of the property of the said Tenant or his estate, or upon the heir, executor or administrator, or assignee, as the case may be, but such termination shall not release or discharge any payment of rent payable hereunder and then accrued, or any liability then accrued by reason of any agreement or covenant herein contained on the part of the said Tenant, or his legal representatives.

Fourteenth. In case of the destruction of said building or premises by fire or the elements, during the term hereby created, or previous thereto, or such partial destruction thereof as to render the premises demised wholly untenable or unfit for occupancy, or should they be so badly injured that the same cannot be repaired within ninety days from the happening of such injury, then and in such case the term hereby created shall cease and become null and void from the date of such damage or destruction, and then the Tenant shall immediately surrender said premises and all his interest therein to the Landlord, and the Tenant shall pay rent within said term only to the time of such surrender; and in case of such destruction or partial destruction, the Landlord may re-enter and repossess said premises discharged from this Lease and may remove all parties therefrom. But should said premises be repairable within ninety days from the happening of said injury, the Landlord may enter and repair the same with all reasonable speed, and the rent shall not accrue after said injury or while repairs are being made, but shall recommence immediately after said repairs shall be completed. But if said premises shall be so slightly injured by fire or the elements as not to be rendered untenable and unfit for occupancy, then the Landlord agrees to repair the same with reasonable promptitude, and in that case the rent accrued and accruing shall not cease or determine. The Tenant shall immediately notify the Landlord in case of fire.

Fifteenth. Landlord agrees to pay to Alester G. Furman Co., Greenville, S.
