

appoint a successor Trustee, with the same right of re-appointment in the event of the resignation or disqualification of any successor Trustee or Trustees during the lifetime of the Trustor, provided only that any Trustee so appointed shall at all times be a banking institution of the State of Georgia fully authorized to exercise trust powers.

Successor Trustees, if necessary to fill vacancies, shall be appointed after the death of the Trustor by the then Judge of the Superior Court of Richmond County, Georgia, upon application to be made therefor either by the beneficiary or beneficiaries, or any person acting for them, and without the necessity of any parties to said proceeding, provided only that such successor Trustee so appointed shall be a banking institution of the State of Georgia authorized to exercise trust powers.

Any successor Trustee or Trustees appointed by the Trustor under the terms hereof shall be vested with all the authority and powers given to the original Trustee herein named, and shall be subject to the same limitations and restrictions, but any successor Trustee or Trustees that may be appointed by the Judge of the Superior Court of Richmond County, Georgia, after the death of the Trustor, may be vested in the order of appointment either with the same rights, powers, and limitations, or the same may be restricted and modified in such manner as the Court may think proper.

This trust agreement shall be absolute and irrevocable in all respects upon the execution hereof and shall immediately
