

PERSONALLY appeared before me Cynthia A. Reynolds who, after being duly sworn, deposes and says that she was acquainted with B.P. Cantrell and that he devised certain property to his daughter Artie Jane Forest and she subsequently sold the property, containing 10 acres, to L.A. Bragg, in Deed Book 88 at page 374, without mentioning whether or not she had had heirs. Your Deponent personally knew Artie Jane Forest and she had three children, namely; Donald Forest and Ollie Forest Drake and John H. Forest; that Artie Jane Forest and her three children are now dead.

SWORN to before me this the 26th day)
