

expressly provided, in no wise be limited or restricted by reference to, or inference from, the terms of any other power specified herein, and each such power shall be construed as an independent power, and the enumeration of specific powers shall be deemed to be supplementary to and not exclusive of the general powers of Trustees pursuant to law, and shall include all powers necessary to carry the same into effect.

(4) Upon the failure of a Trustee hereunder to serve, the surviving Trustee (if more than one trustee has been appointed) shall become successor Trustee with the same powers and authorities as originally granted to the Trustee herein. If there is no other Trustee, some National Bank appointed by the Probate Judge of Greenville County shall thereafter serve as Trustee with the same powers and authorities hereinabove granted to the Trustee.

(5) It is specifically understood and agreed that the Trustee herein named, upon acceptance of this trust, does so upon the condition that the Trustee shall not be liable for anything whatsoever done by the Trustee in connection with this trust, except for wilful misconduct, or gross negligence or any unlawful act.

(6) The Trustee, by joining in the execution of this instrument, signifies acceptance of the trust appointment subject to its privileges, terms and conditions, but may resign upon 30 days' notice.

(7) Grantor reserves the right to amend and/or revoke this trust in whole or in part at any time and from time to time during Grantor's lifetime by giving to Trustee written notice to that effect. Trustee shall within 90 days after receipt of such notice pay over and distribute to the Grantor or Grantor's designee the assets (including any undistributed income) constituting the corpus of the trust.
