

at the date of this trust agreement, this trust shall forthwith be terminated and the Trustee shall pay over the principal thereof as then constituted, and any accrued income therefrom, to the issue then living of the Grantor's said son, in equal shares, per stirpes.

II

If any principal or income of the trust herein created shall become vested in a minor, the Trustee may, in its absolute discretion, either pay over such income or principal at any time, and from time to time, to the guardian of the property or to any parent of such minor, or retain the same (or any part thereof) for such minor during minority. In case of such retention, the Trustee may apply such income or principal, and income therefrom, to the support, maintenance, and education of such minor, irrespective of the resources of such minor or of his or her parents, or, in the absolute discretion of the Trustee, such income may be accumulated and retained by it during the minority of such minor, in which event it shall be added to, and invested as, principal. Any such payments or applications of income or of principal, or income therefrom, may be made directly to such minor, if over the age of fourteen (14) years, or to any parent or guardian with whom such minor may be residing, or to the guardian of the property of such minor, or to any person, firm or corporation furnishing goods, services, or instruction to such minor, in any case without requiring bond, and the receipt of any such person shall be a full acquittal and discharge of the Trustee to the extent of the payments so made. Any such payments which shall be made to persons, other than parents or guardians, furnishing goods or services to such minor shall not exceed the reasonable value of goods or services claimed to have been furnished as evidenced by voucher, but the Trustee shall not be required to verify the receipt
