

foregoing powers herein granted the Trustee is also granted to his successors, and said Trustee and his successors may exercise all such powers without the order of any court or judge and any purchaser of the trust property or lender to whom the property is conveyed as security for a loan to the Trustee is hereby relieved of the necessity of further investigation of the Trustee's power to convey or sell said trust property.

This provision, to the fullest extent, shall be binding upon all persons having any beneficial interest under this trust insofar as any transactions had between the Trustee with persons or entities not a party interested hereunder. However, as between the Grantors and the Trustee, it is understood and agreed that:

(a) Trustee will not sell any portion of the real property without first obtaining the written consent of the owners of at least fifty-five (55%) percent of the beneficial interest of the trust; and this provision is incorporated in the event that part of the beneficial interest is conveyed; and

(b) Unless legally obligated by written lease indenture, the Trustee will undertake no major repair or remodeling, or restoration of the buildings on the property without first obtaining the written consent of the owners of at least fifty-five (55%) percent of the beneficial interest of the Trust. A major repair or remodeling is one that exceeds Two Thousand Five Hundred ($2,500.00) Dollars in cost.

(4) Trustee will at all times maintain in force and effect a standard policy of fire and extended coverage on the buildings in an amount not less than eighty (80%) percent of the full insurable value of the buildings and will carry public liability insurance on the premises with limits
