Article IV Charter of Incorporation

----- To deliver and provide for comprehensive health needs in the Piedmont area of South Carolina in accord with the basic concepts of comprehensive health care delivery of this same area.

The programs developed and delivered will be innovative in concept and will be concerned with all levels of care and may include preventive, episodic, rehabilitation and restorative services with or without auxillary services. The program will work closely with related programs, agencies and educational establishments to ensure a co-ordinated approach and to avoid duplication of health services through fragmentation of resources.
