

The purposes of the Corporation shall be exclusively to own, operate, and maintain a cemetery for the burial of bodies of persons of the Jewish faith in accordance with Jewish law; to acquire land and to sell lots therein for bona fide burial purposes and not for purposes of resale; and to maintain the cemetery in a state of repair and upkeep appropriate to a final resting place in accordance with Jewish law; to engage in those activities necessarily incidental thereto; and for no other purpose.

No part of the net earnings of the Corporation shall inure to the benefit of, or be distributable to, its members, trustees, officers, or other private persons, except that the Corporation shall be authorized and empowered to pay reasonable compensation for services rendered and to make payments and distributions in furtherance of its purposes. No substantial part of the activities of the Corporation shall be the carrying on of propaganda, or otherwise attempting, to influence legislation, and the Corporation shall not participate in, or intervene in (including the publishing or distribution of statements) any political campaign on behalf of any candidate for public office. Notwithstanding any other provision of these articles, the Corporation shall not carry on any other activities not permitted to be carried on (a) by a corporation exempt from Federal income tax under section 501 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954 (or the corresponding provision of any future United States Internal Revenue Law) or (b) by a corporation, contributions to which are deductible under section 170(c)(2) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954 (or the corresponding provision of any future United States Internal Revenue Law).

(Continued on next page)